Re: WBL Here's to Us! (No. 2002-3)

Dear Foundation Associate:

At this time, we wish to congratulate four of our Foundation Associates on their recent successes and the successes of their companies: Susan Alpert, Nancy Featherstone, Carolyn Smeltzer, and Pat Stanfill-Edens.

- Susan Alpert, Ph.D., M.D., Vice President of Regulatory Affairs for C.R. Bard in Murray Hill, NJ, has joined the Children's Specialized Hospital Foundation Board (www.childrenspecialized.org) in Mountainside, NJ. Children's Specialized Hospital is the largest pediatric rehabilitation hospital in the United States providing a wide array of medical, developmental, educational and rehabilitative services for infants, children, adolescents, and young adults without regard to ability to pay. Susan is also a WBL Advisory Board member and Inaugural Retreat attendee.

- Nancy Featherstone, Managed Care Marketing Director, is proud to announce that her company, AstraZeneca, was named by Working Mother magazine as one of the "100 Best Companies for Working Mothers" in the nation. Nancy is a WBL Advisory Board member and Inaugural Retreat attendee. AstraZeneca was a 2002 Inaugural Retreat Silver Sponsor and is a 2003 Retreat Gold Sponsor.

- Carolyn Smeltzer, RN, Ed.D., a Principal for PricewaterhouseCoopers in Chicago, IL, has joined the Board of Directors of Advocate HealthCare based in Oak Brook, Illinois. Advocate Health Care (www.advocatehealth.com) is the largest fully integrated not-for-profit health care delivery system in metropolitan Chicago and is recognized as one of the top 10 systems in the country. Advocate has eight hospitals with 3,500 beds and the state's largest privately held full-service home health care company among its more than 200 sites of care. With more than 4,600 affiliated physicians, including almost 2,000 in physician hospital organizations (PHOs) and about 475 in three large medical groups, Advocate has Chicago's largest economically aligned physician network. Carolyn is also a WBL Advisory Board member and Inaugural Retreat attendee.

- Pat Stanfill-Edens, RN, MS, MBA, CHE, FAAMA, Assistant Vice President, Quality and Oncology Service Line Director for HCA, Inc. based in Nashville, TN, was awarded the prestigious Harry Shubin, M.D. Statesman in Healthcare Administration Award presented by the American Academy of Medical Administrators. This award is given to recognize significant, innovative contributions to the aims of quality healthcare delivery. It will be given to Pat during the AAMA 45th Annual Conference in Boston on November 22, 2002. If you are interested in attending this conference, please visit www.aameda.org or contact Nancy Anderson from the Academy at (847) 759-8601 for more information.

We hope that you will take advantage of this communication process to increase your own visibility. Remember, self-promotion is item number one of our Ten Best Practices for Advancing Women in Business!

If you have a relevant business or professional success that you would like to share as a WBL "Achievement", please email the necessary information either to Lynn Shapiro Snyder, WBL Founder, at lsnyder@ebglaw.com or to Jennifer Roberts, WBL Executive Director, at jroberts@ebglaw.com.
